Weaknesses

New entrants to the industry.
Contracts still to be embedded.

Opportunities

Industry is ready to embrace new entrants.

Preferential Procurement Policies are favouring BBBEE companies of which REVELATION SPARK is ranging more than 110% in this regard.

"The Charter" is making it possible to enter the market for young Black owned companies, which can prove beyond a reasonable doubt that they are not fronts.

Government Support programs makes it possible to venture into this industry with funds and support available .

Threats

Foreign exchange fluctuations.
Risks associated with the supply chain.
Competition from old, well established multinational companies.
Few but extremely strong players in the industry
